Dear John:

We were very pleased that you could join us at the Board dinner. I am only sorry that in all the confusion we did not have more of a chance to talk. I hope we can do better next time.

With best regards,

Sincerely,

Robert R. Everett

Bob,

Many thanks for the very enjoyable dinner last evening. It was good conversation, good fun, and I welcomed the opportunity to meet some of the MITRE officers. With best wishes for good luck.

Regards,

John N. McMahon
